ABSTRACT

A bibliography is provided of the materials identified by the consortium participating in the African-American Materials Project. Members of the consortium include: Atlanta University, Fisk University, Hampton Institute, North Carolina Central University, South Carolina State College, and Tuskegee Institute. The materials listed were located in the six states of Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia; each deals with some aspect of Afro-American studies and the collection as a whole covers topics in the areas of art, drama, education, philosophy, religion, literature, science, history and social science. Three major categories of materials are provided--books, periodicals, and periodical articles--and within each category materials are listed alphabetically by author. The collection includes both recent items and some works which date back to the late 18th century and is intended for students and researchers working in the area of African-American studies. (PB)

INTRODUCTION

The African-American Materials Project is a cooperative research program funded by the U. S. Office of Education. The purpose of the project is to identify and coordinate African-American materials in the six states of Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.

A Special Purpose Grant under the U. S. Office of Education Higher Education Act, Title II-A was received, which provided $25,000 for the cooperative acquisition of expensive and infrequently used African-American materials in specific areas. Five of the institutions- Fisk University, Hampton Institute, North Carolina Central University, South Carolina State College and Tuskegee Institute participated in the program. This list is an outgrowth of that activity.

The list is arranged alphabetically by author. If a work is a reprint, this is noted along with the reprint publisher. For primary works the original publisher is listed. The original date of publication is given for all entries.

A subject index has been provided.

It is hoped that this list will prove helpful to all interested parties.
